TELEGRAPHIC TICKINGS.

Affairs at the National Capital—Mutilated Coins.

THE HAWAIIAN RECIPROCITY TREATY.

Murderous Mention—San Francisco Markets—Death of Don Juan Forster—High Water—New York Notes.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Director of the Mint has just decided that coin once punched or mutilated can only be considered as bullion thereafter, even though the holes are filled with the same quality of metal.

WEIGHING MAILS.

Copies of correspondence in regard to weighing mails on railroads between New York and Chicago will to-day be placed upon the desks of the members of the House. In one letter Postmaster General James asked Wm. H. Vanderbilt to transfer postal cars from express to fast train between Buffalo and Chicago and accept $60,000 to $70,000 additional compensation without running any more cars.

THE HAWAIIAN TREATY.

The hearing before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the proposed abrogation of the Hawaiian treaty was continued this morning. Allen, Hawaiian Minister, reviewed the history of affairs which had led up to the treaty, and recited the views of Marcy, Seward, Sumner, Gen. Grant and others, of the importance to the Government of the United States that the Hawaiian Islands should not fall under the control of any foreign power. He contradicts the assertion made on the other side that the labor engaged in sugar culture could be called in any sense slave labor, but that the wages paid are high, and the interest and welfare of the laborers are thoroughly protected by the Hawaiian Government. He showed that the allegation of smuggling sugar into this country under the name of Sandwich Island sugar was entirely without foundation, and in proof of that he read from a letter from Comly, U. S. Minister at Honolulu. Geo. S. Boutwell addressed the committee on the same side of the question, confining his remarks chiefly as to the great importance of the U. S. Government retaining its influence in these islands in view of the great trade of the future with countries on the Pacific. Further hearing in the matter was postponed by the committee until Monday, March 6th.

WASHINGTON CHURCHES.

The Protestant Churches to-day adopted Anti-Polygamy resolutions.

NEW YORK NOTES.

The Chinese Bill will be Pressed in the House and Senate.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Mail and Express' Washington correspondent says Senator Miller, of California, will to-day or to-morrow call up from the calendar his bill regarding the Chinese immigration treaty, and press it after it has been discussed a reasonable length of time. Several Senators desire to speak on it. Representatives Page and Pacheco, intend to press it in the House also in a few days.

THE PERUVIAN BUSINESS.

The list of names contained in the Peruvian correspondence was received in Washington with indifference. The Tribune's correspondence shows that at no time has the State Department given Shepard the least encouragement, Blaine having once threatened to begin criminal proceedings against him for attempting to bribe General Hurlbut. Inquiry in the city revealed the fact that in nearly every instance Shepard's use of the names of prominent men was without authority.

THE CRIMINAL RECORD.

Four Persons Ambushed and Murdered by a Demon.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—Yesterday, near Centreville, Texas, two negroes named Hall were killed and their wives mortally wounded. The negroes, who were riding along the road in a wagon, had some trouble with the child of a white man named Lyle. The latter, taking a shotgun, concealed himself by the roadside. Shortly after the negroes drove by and Lyle fired upon them from his ambush.

A HANGING BEE.

DALLAS, Texas, February 18.—Miles Thompson, colored, was hanged to-day. He was guilty of rape and murder.

BEATEN TO DEATH.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 20.—Abraham Neilson beat his wife to-day so badly that she died half an hour after.

STABBING AFFRAY.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., February 20th.—At National City last night a man named Brady was dangerously stabbed by one Doyle, who is now in jail.

Fell in a Fit.

OAKDALE, Feb. 20.—Sarah Rettliff, aged 23, a daughter of William Rettliff, of San Joaquin county, seven miles south of Farmington, while in a fit fell in the fire. Her clothes caught and were entirely consumed, burning her in a shocking manner. Her parents in attempting to extinguish the flames set the house on fire, which with its contents was consumed. She cannot recover.

ON A TEAR.

High Water at Cincinnati—Business Interfered With.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

CINCINNATI, Feb. 20.—A heavy rain has been falling. The river, at 11 o'clock, is 55 reet and rising two inches an hour. All cellars below Third street are flooded, practically suspending business in that part of the city. A great force is kept busy removing goods. The Plum street passenger depot is inaccessible and trains deliver passengers at Wood street. The Maddux & Holbart distillery and the Globe rolling mill have been compelled to cease operations. The former have driven away all their stock. The other distilleries in the same locality will be compelled to close to-day. Even if the rain should stop now it is estimated there will be five feet more of a raise. What will come with more rain would make this season's the highest water ever known.

OTHER LOCALITIES.

Telegrams from points along the Ohio show that the river is still rising. A great flood is imminent.

HELENA UNDER WATER.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 20.—Reports of breaks along the levee are still coming in. At Helena the largest portion of the city is four feet under water.

SAN FRANCISCO BUDGET.

Don Juan Forster's Death.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 20.—John Forster, more widely known as Don Juan Forster, died this morning at his residence at Santa Margarita, in this county, of erysipelas, aged 67 years. Deceased was one of the oldest pioneer residents of Southern California, having landed at San Diego from an English ship in 1886. He became a Mexican citizen, and acquired American citizenship by the treaty with Mexico. He was at one time owner of the National Ranch, and afterward became possessor of the great tract of the Santa Margarita and Las Flores, the largest ranch in southern California, and probably the largest under single ownership in the State. He was for years one of the leading cattle raisers of the country. At his home on the Santa Margarita he dispensed the hospitality of the olden time to all visitors. His death is widely lamented.

The total rainfall of the season to date is 6.77 inches.

Rough on the Legislature.

LARAMIE CITY, Wyo., Feb. 20.—Last night Mrs. John A. Grover, alias Dolly Bailey, alias Pussy Newport, alias the Blonde, a prominent member of the demi-monde here, committed suicide by shooting herself through the head. She had had trouble with her most recent husband, Mr. Grover, which it is supposed is the cause of the deed. Pussy Newport will be remembered as the woman who, while living at Lincoln, Neb., started out to reform, but afterwards said it was useless so long as a Nebraska Legislature was in session.

"HOLD THE FORT."

The Story of That Famous Message as Told by the Hero Himself.

[Correspondence of Des Moines Register.]

I notice a number of newspapers giving, or attempting to give, a correct statement of the circumstances under which our lamented friend and brother, Judge J. W. McKenzie, performed the signal act of heroism at Altoona, none of which exactly coincide with a detailed statement of the case, as given to me by the "hero" himself. I had been especially intimate with him for many years. Not one word had ever fallen from his lips relative to this matter, to my knowledge. One day, learning incidentally from another of his connection with "Hold the fort, for I am coming," I took occasion to ask him about it. He seemed at first reluctant to tell me, but I pressed him, and this is substantially his account of it. After describing the situation of the armies at Altoona and Kenesaw, he said:

"General Sherman's signal corps had been trying to send dispatches from Kenesaw to General Corse. We could read the dispatches with our telescopes, but could not receive or answer them back, because the rebel shots were so thick. The rebels had also a lot of sharp shooters posted watching our squad, and every time a man would show himself they would pick him off. At this time General Corse came up and said, addressing the signal corps: 'Who is in command here?' Our Captain was absent, and I was in charge of the squad, and I replied, 'I am sir.' The General then asked if a message could be sent to General Sherman in answer to his 'To hold the fort for I am coming,' just read. I replied 'that it could be if it was absolutely necessary.' General Corse then wrote out the message and handed it to me. It read as follows:

To General Sherman:—I am short a cheek-bone and one ear, but can whip hell out of them yet. GENERAL CORSE.

"I took it and the signal flag and called for a volunteer from my little squad. No man responded. I then offered the flag-staff to each man and asked him if he would volunteer, and each declined. I then thought I would detail one, but my brother Tom was in the squad, and the thought struck me if I detailed another than him they would say at once 'partiality.' If I detailed him and he was shot I could never forgive myself, and it seemed like certain death to any one to undertake it. At this moment of hesitation the General, seeing no man going forward, said to me, firmly: 'Lieutenant, I thought you said this message could be sent?' I replied 'It can,' and without further delay I mounted the signal station, and commenced sending the message, expecting every moment to be shot. The flag was about eighteen feet long, and the wind was blowing some, and I found it very hard work, and felt as though I must give out before I was done. At this moment, when it seemed I could stand it no longer, a stranger, not a member of the signalcorps, came up behind me, put his arms around me and along my arms, took hold of the flag-staff, and, standing behind me, helped me to wave the answer back to Sherman. I do not think I could have sent the whole message without help or rest."

Good Resolves for the New Year.

On the 2d day of January, 1882, a business meeting of the proprietors, editors and sifters of this paper was held in the editorial arena at No. 914 Congress avenue. The proprietors, editors and sifters were all present. In other words we were both in attendance. Col. Know was appointed a committee to draw up a select assortment of resolutions regarding a swearing-off platform. The Colonel retired, and, after an absence of half an hour, returned, accompanied by the aroma of a coffee bean, and presented the following: "Resolved, That we hereby swear-off using any stimulating beverages, said swear-off to continue and to be in force for one year from date, with the following exceptions regarding time and place: 1. Solely and strictly as medicine. 2. When samples are sent to the office. 3. When laboring under a sense of discouragement. 4. When we receive a new subscriber. 5. When we feel that we actually need something. 6. On any special occasion.—Texas Siftings.

"A young naturalist" writes us to learn "how he can catch a live wasp for scientific purposes without injuring it?" Right by the tail, son; right by the tip end of the tail. Squeeze hard. The wasp won't mind it a particle, and if it seems to be injured any that you can see, send us the bill, and we'll pay for a new wasp.

"Generous to a fault" may be said of many men. At least they are generous enough to their own faults.

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

THE LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES will be sold on all the trains of the Southern and Central Pacific Railroads; also on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Texas & Pacific road.

The TIMES can also be found at the news-stands of the Palace and Occidental Hotels and Russ House, San Francisco.

Arrangements are now being perfected to have the TIMES placed in the reading rooms of the leading hotels in this and the Eastern States.

THE TIMES office is connected with the telephone system of this city, and those desiring to advertise in or subscribe for this paper can do so by this means.

THE CALICO DISTRICT.

Mr. Miller, late Sheriff of Ventura county, who is just in from the Calico District, where he is now interested, gives a very favorable report of the out-look there, and is firm in a belief, founded upon the shining rocks, that the District will be a permanent and good one. He gives the distance of the District as ninety miles from San Bernardino, and but six miles from the line of the Atlantic and Pacific survey between Mojave and the Needles, on the Colorado river. He says there are now about ninety people in the camp. Of individual claims and work, Mr. Miller mentions the King claim, which has a shaft down one hundred and ten feet, and drifts to the north and south forty feet each, all in good ore. The Moscow is down sixty feet in pay rock, and the Oriental is down forty feet, also in good paying ore. One mill is now approaching completion and another outlined. This mine is one of many he had in mind when the other day he asserted that with a railroad completed on the survey of the Atlantic and Pacific, we would soon have between the Cajon Pass and Albuquerque a line of towns of more importance to us and the country than those we now have on the line of the Southern Pacific and Atchison & Topeka in Arizona and New Mexico. The inauguration of work on the railroad will stimulate efforts to develop the mines so the road and the towns will grow up together, and before we are aware of it we shall have another market added and another stream of bullion flowing out from this section. Success to all such enterprises—the mines and the rails.

YUMA, A. T.

This once flourishing burg, alive with military and the bustle of transportation outfits, has quieted down to a mere way-side railroad station. The trains come and go and an occasional steamer makes the trip to the northern landings on the Colorado, but the hundreds of wagons and teamsters and animals that made business for many stores and feed establishments are there no more, and but for the new element attached to the rails, Lo, the poor Indian, would have his own way again. The railroad structures are the only noticeable improvements in many years. The works of the company here, as in other places where it has carried its rails, are of the most substantial character. Its bridge, tanks, round-house, hotel and water works are all models of good work. It is now found that the capacious hotel built in 1881 is not large enough to accommodate the growing travel on the road and the employes who are fed and lodged there, and preparations for an enlargement have already been commenced. The addition is to be placed on the river side of the building and between the L and the track. And to provide room for the many cars liable to be stored there, much additional side track is being constructed, and additional settling tanks are also being erected. On the whole much work is being done at Yuma.

The place is no longer a Quartermaster's supply station for the army, and the barracks, where were lodged quite a detachment of men, are deserted save by a few men sufficient to "hold the fort." The supplies formerly taken to Yuma for the whole territory are now carried to Maricopa for Prescott, McDowell and other camps in the northern portion of the Territory, and to Tucson, Benson and Wilcox for the southern camps. The soldiers have been scattered about where they could do the most good.

No work whatever is being done on the projected road hence to Point Isabel, and in fact the subject is rarely mentioned. The presumption being that it has gone to sleep, the sedative that induced the slumber being the consolidation or the compromise between the S. P. R. R. and the Atchison-Topeka, Atlantic-Pacific managements.

THE man who makes a habit of purchasing all his necessaries east and ignoring home merchants should bear in mind that in doing so he "cuts off his nose to spite his face," so to speak. No community can possibly thrive if its citizens fail to support home institution. This will apply to manufactures or general merchandise. To insure the healthy and permanent growth of any community every citizen in it should give the home institution the preference, even if the price of the article should be somewhat higher, freight included, than it can be procured for in the east.

COULD not the immense beds of brea which underlie a large portion of the western suburbs be utilized more extensively as fuel for manufacturing purposes? To an enterprising man possessed of a little capital there is doubtless "money in it."

No pains or expense will be spared to make this the leading hotel south of San Francisco.

In the Shorb case the people closed yesterday afternoon and the defendant's attorneys moved for a non-suit on the ground that the people had failed to make a case against the defendant. Col. Death of Don Juan Forster.

The telegraph brought us early yesterday morning the announcement of the death of John Forster, Esq., familiarly known as Don Juan Forster, of the Santa Margarita Rancho, San Diego county. His many friends here had no previous knowledge of his illness, but an announcement in the San Diego Union, subsequently received, mentions that he was under the care of a physician, from an attack of erysipelas. Mr. F. was well advanced in life, being sixty-seven years of age, but was up to the last a hale, well preserved man, and the picture of good health. He always had a cordial address, and to know him once was to feel a pleasure with his acquaintance and in his society. He was an Englishman by birth, and came to this coast in his young manhood as a ship's supercargo. He was so well pleased with the country that he concluded to remain and ally himself with the people and fortunes of the country. He became possessed of the Santa Margarita Ranch, and was largely and almost exclusively devoted to cattle raising. Of his children two survive him, who, with his aged widow, will have the sympathy of the numerous and long time friends of the honored and esteemed deceased.

Since writing the foregoing we learn that Mr. Forster returned from San Francisco on the 13th instant in his usual health. On the following day he was attacked with erysipelas. Medical assistance was summoned promptly, and although the complaint yielded readily to the remedies administered, appopletic symptoms appeared on the evening of Tuesday and resulted in his death at 6 A. M. on Monday.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 18, 1882.

EDITOR TIMES: We notice in your issue of the 17th inst. a correspondent from this place, who signs himself "Reporter" is in error in regard to the origin of the quarrel that resulted in the killing of Mr. Fred Reuter. The quarrel did not originate through Hulse being blackballed in the Odd Fellow's Lodge. Now Hulse never was balloted for in the lodge of that order in this town. The undersigned being regular attending members of the lodge here know whereof they speak.

SANTA ANA ITEMS.

[Semi-Weekly Standard, Feb. 15.]

In a ride of a few miles through Orange the first of this week, we noticed quite a number of peach trees in full blossom.

Santa Ana Lodge No. 82, A. O. U. W., will give a social in their hall on the evening of the 28th. It will be confined to the members and a few invited guests.

Mr. Gus Reinhaus, who has a splendid ranch about a mile and a half from town, is having it put in thorough order in readiness for a large stock of fruit trees and vines, which will be put out within a few weeks.

Among the new-comers to Santa Ana is T. A. Wilson, of Greenfield, Iowa, who informs us that he will settle here and engage in business. We trust he may find everything here such as to meet his expectations.

Additional talent is constantly being obtained by the management for the entertainment and ball to be given by Sedgwick Post, on the evenings of the 21st and 22d inst., and there is not a doubt but that it will be the grandest affair ever given in this portion of the county.

ANAHEIM ITEMS.

[Gazette.]

A waterspout burst in the neighborhood of the Guinn ranch, north of town, on Thursday, but we were unable to learn the extent of the damages done, if any.

It is said that the earthquake of two weeks ago was followed by an increase in the flow of several artesian wells at Westminster. This is the first time that any good results from these shakes have been recorded.

The following new vineyards will be planted this year, in addition to those already reported in the Gazette:

L. F. Lewis—20 acres, Malvoisie, Muscat and Black Hamburg.
W. J. Smith—20 acres, Mission.
W. H. Henderson—12 acres, Mission.
Charles Hille—20 acres, principally Malvoisie.
Alexander Wright—20 acres, principally Malvoisie.
F. Hartung—20 acres, Charboneau, Chasselas and Malvoisie.
Kenyon Cox, 50 acres. Muscat.

MAGNIFICENT STORE

Just Finished in the Ancient and Honorable Pueblo of Tucson.

The Changes and Improvements Brought About in Arizona by the Influences of the Southern Pacific R. R.

The many wonderful changes and remarkable developments that have occurred in Arizona since the advent of the Southern Pacific railway, cannot be realized by the outside world, neither are they fully estimated by those even, among whom they are constantly transpiring. Only a few short years since, this then far off, inaccessible and almost isolated region, was regarded as a desert waste, a fitting habitation only for tarantulas, snakes and other reptiles. Vague rumors existed of the fabulous treasures that were embedded in her mountain fastnesses, held there and guarded by the wily and watchful Apaches. The railway however, has been the means of changing these difficulties and removing the many false impressions that had taken hold of the popular mind. Through its aid capital and labor have been introduced and grappling bravely, in causing nature to yield her hidden treasures. These waste and desert lands have in many places been transformed into fruitful and luxuriant valleys. Large forests of magnificent timber are being utilized, hundreds of square miles of excellent coal have been discovered, new towns have sprung up and the old have been improved and remodeled, comfort and elegance taking the place of the unsightly structures formerly used at once for a fortress and as a dwelling or place of business where millions changes hands in a year. Tucson has now some of the most beautiful and completely arranged stores to be found in the length or breadth of the Union. The whole Territory may well feel a large degree of pride on the opening of the magnificent edifice just finished at a cost of $40,000 for the old and wealthy firm of

L. ZECKENDORF & CO.

The dimensions of the ground covered by building are 85x188 feet, or nearly 14,000 feet of store room, located on Main, Pennington and Pearl streets. The sidewalk is wide and made of an excellent imitation of sandstone, only having more endurance and with a finer appearance. The design of the front is unique and tastefully elegant, without any extra touch of display that could be avoided, the whole length looking as if it was all glass, which in fact it is, except the necessary supports for the roof, there being no less than seven windows (including one on the corner) of heavy plate glass, each 9 ft.—3x12 ft. 7 high. There are also three entrances with 9 feet wide glass door openings. Besides these on the front, there are 18 windows on the sides and ends. The store is also splendidly ventilated by means of nine large ventilators and skylights. For the time being the whole is quite imposing, while the stylish, metropolitan air it presents reminds the looker-on of some of the most fashionable stores of the larger cities of the East. The windows will each contain the different classes of goods represented in the various departments. On entering say the middle door, the visitor is ushered into the retail dry goods branch, which has neat shelving and counters on each side. It is 30 feet wide and about 75 deep, the fitting up and nicety displayed in the hight and width of the counters, the arrangement of the shelves, etc., are all admirably planned and in keeping with the most modern style and the general plan of the store, at the end of this department on each side there is a very handsome cashier's receiving desk. Behind this is the main office. Here there is an immense safe, on the right of which is the bookkeeper's and on the left the private office for the head men of the mammoth concern. The offices in all are 30x12, and are the dividing line between the retail and wholesale departments in each branch.

This building will contain on opening, some $300,000 worth of goods. This is independent of those in bulk in their large warehouse at the depot, which will amount to a little over $125,000, always kept in whole packages, all the wholesale goods being sold by sample. This firm was established in 1866, since which time it has enjoyed a large and profitable patronage, ranging from $250,000 per annum at the beginning, till it does a business of over one and a half million dollars at the present day. The members of this firm say, while they find the railway has perhaps worked a change in their manner of doing business, it has not really altered the amount done in the gross, much of the trade of this house being with Mexicans.

The firm consists of Louis Zeckendorf, New York, and Albert Steinfeld, Tucson, who have a gentleman, Mr. Straus, as their confidential adviser and cashier, admirably adapted from long experience, perfect knowledge of languages also of men and manners, for the position of responsibility he so thoroughly and with such marked ability fills.

Drink's Doing.

Drunks are getting scarce in this city, for some cause. It was not an uncommon thing a few months ago for the criminal court to have from three to ten old lushes before it on Monday morning. But now it is altogether different. Last week there were but three, and yesterday there were only two poor devils for the chain gang.

Bound for San Quentin.

John Wilkinson, who was examined before Judge Adams the other day and held to answer before the Supreme Court, charged with burglary, was before Judge Hunt yesterday. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year in the State Prison. Deputy Sheriff Huber took him up yesterday.

More Store Buildings.

Mr. Rivera, of the late firm of Rivera & Sanguinetti, arrived home yesterday from his European trip. He will build immediately five stores in place of the buildings recently burned on Main Street. This will be good news to many who have patiently waited for better business locations.

Indian Whiskey.

United States Marshal Poole, who has been in this city and vicinity for the past few days looking after parties who have been selling whiskey to Indians, succeeded in capturing four, with the assistance of Deputy Marshal Dunlap, and took them up to San Francisco last night.

Sudden Death.

The many friends of Nick Covarrubias, Esq., will sympathize with him in the loss of his amiable wife, early yesterday morning. She was sick but about eight hours, with some malignant disease of the throat.

O'CONNOR.

A Meeting Last Night and Committees Appointed.

About thirty Irish-American citizens assembled in Judge Fisher's court room last night for the purpose of making arrangements for the reception of T. P. O'Connor, the great Irish agitator, who will lecture here next Monday night.

S. McKinley acted as Chairman and J. C. Cuddy as Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting.

Mr. Moran moved that a committee be appointed to arrange for the reception, and J. P. Moran, D. M. McGarry, M. Golden, P. M. Darcy and Wm. Beyson were appointed.

Mr. O'Neil moved that each standing committee of the Land League be requested to act with the above committee. Carried.

B. McKinley, D. M. McGarvey, R. Maloney, John Mead, P. M. Darcy and Martin Gallen were appointed a committee on printing.

Mr. McCann moved that a committee of five be appointed on halls, decorations and music, and Messrs. Roach, O'Neil, Cuddy, Golden and Dillon were appointed.

Mr. McGarvey moved that the admission charged at the door be a dollar.

It was amended to read fifty cents and carried. Adjourned.

A BIG HUNT.

The Los Angeles Sportsmen's Club Hunt in a Novel Way.

They go the Ballona a Ducking and Get More Than They Can Bring Home—Great Joy in Camp.

Last Saturday morning the lovers of duck hunting started out for the Ballona with the intention of committing murder in the different languages, and they did. About two o'clock thirteen of the Los Angeles Sportsmen's Club met at the appointed camping place, and after a hasty dinner and a good drink of Democratic ice water they paired off under their respective leaders, R. A. Ling on one side and D. J. Foley on the other. These mighty hunters were elected simply because they were the

CRACK SHOTS

In the crowd. (See the score.)

They—the chief murderers—tossed up for first choice and Foley got the first pick. There being one too many H. T. Payne was appointed umpire. The fun then began and was kept up until yesterday morning.

They had a good deal of fun at Ling's expense. The boys knew he was a good shot, over the left, and some of them watched him. The first duck he killed was not a duck at all, but a mud chicken. Ling thought he had killed a polar goose, and was thoroughly disgusted when the cook refused to

ROAST HIS GOOSE.

There was much rivalry between the captainsa nd they never lost an opportunity to play a practical joke on one another. The second day Foley got up sick. The ice-water didn't agree with him. He started ont, however, to get a goose or two. After several hours hunt he came in with a mud hen and what he supposed to be a goose, but when his bag was examined the goose was a hawk that had been killed several days before and slipped into his bag by his rival a few minutes after he got in camp. He, Foley, is fond of late sleeping, and when the boys joshed him about Ling's industry he got mad and said the reason he was not so stir-Ling as his opposing captain was that he was accompanied by such a terrible Payne that he was afraid to Hazard a shot. Preparations were immediately made for drenching him with ice water after that, but it wasn't necessary. He declared he had a Craw-for(d) such as that and declared he could get away with a Hol-brook full of it. How much he did get away with can't be computed In-gals, but he pulled away at the thing till he couldn't see Nor(d)holdt any more. The boys shouldn't have Gav-itt away though.

When the umpire decided the game stood:

LING'S TEAM.

R. A. Ling	18—and a mud hen
J. Martin	41
Dr. Crawford	35
Maj. St John	29
F. W. Ingals	37
J. Norholdt	27

FOLDY'S TEAM.

Dan Foley	9—& a dead hawk
L. D. Gavitt	42
L. Martin	32
J. F. Holbrook	29
Joe Taggart	36
H T Hazzard	38
	186

Ling's score	187
Foley's score	186
H. T. Payne, umpire	41
Total	414

It will be seen from this that Ling's team came out ahead by a duck. The champaign supper has not yet been announced, but when it comes off the TIMES devil will be there.

The Ancon's Passengers.

The Ancon, on her up trip yesterday evening took with her the following passengers:

Mrs J D Allen and son, Mrs Allen, A Hamburger, Ed Roody, Louis Allen, M J Thompson, G Dempsey, E Ellen, wife and daughter, A H McLain, J T Mendenhall, P McDouough, Miss M P Lamb, Mrs Burkarder, H Glance, C E Williams, L Hait, R R Scott. Ten in steerage.

An Accident.

A carpenter named Reece, working on T. A. Templeton's new house on Sixth street, fell off the building on Saturday, a height of about fifteen feet, to the ground, breaking his leg near the hip, his right wrist, and cutting his head badly. He is under the care of Dr. V. Gelcich. The saddest feature of the case is the fact that he is a newcomer and has a family dependent upon his labors for their daily bread.

California novelties, such as sea mosses, ferns, California views, shells, pampas plumes, grasses, California wood ornaments, birds, and a hundred other novelties can be obtained in boundless variety at W. W. & S. A. Widney's Emporium 132 Main street. They make it a pleasure to show goods. See announcement elsewhere.

The most accommodating and gentlemanly firm in the city is that of Platt & Page, jewelers, the successors of E. H. Sweetser, on the corner of Spring and Court streets. They have an admirable stock, and will make a new watch out of your old one—or make it as good as new.

Mr. Geo. T. Hanly, the San Francisco coffee and spice man, is in the city looking after business interests. Mr. Hanly seems well pleased with Los Angeles, and many more improbable things have occurred than that he may at some future time take up his residence here.

Rain fell all about Los Angeles on Sunday, but there was nothing more than a sprinkle here. The Sierra Madre range was again mantled with snow, extending far down on the mesas. Santa Monica and the eastern portion of the county had lively showers.

Pure confectionery, home-made and warranted to be free from adulteration can be obtained at C. Chard's establishment, 36 Main street. Try his vegetable cough candy. See card.

Mr. Charles Tibout, of Orange, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of that district, is in very poor health.

C. L. Fisher, the boot and shoe dealer, left overland last evening on a business trip to San Francisco and other points.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chests disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

For sale by all druggists.

FOR SALE,
A ONE HALF INTEREST IN THE
Horne & West
ELECTRO-MAGNETIC BELT.
THIS IS THE same belt which is now manufactured by W. J. Horne, and which he is extensively advertising as the W. J. HORNE BELT. This Belt was invented and patented by myself. Afterward I assigned one half interest in this Belt to W. J. Horne, which he now owns in common with me. This Belt has taken two premiums at State Fairs; but as I have invented another BELT, of double the power of the HORNE & WEST BELT, and much superior to it in every respect, and which I make and sell for ONE HALF the cost of the old Horne & West Belt, I will sell my one-half interest, in the Horne and West Belt cheap for cash. Any person meaning business call at my
